Re: Freedom of Information Act Request
Mid-American Machine & Equipment, Inc. v. The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company
Case No. 17-CVS-6518

Sir or Madam:

I represent Mid-American Machine & Equipment, Inc. in the above-captioned matter which is pending in Cumberland County, North Carolina. Please allow this letter to serve as a Freedom of Information Act request/request for public records for copies of any documents related to any reported incidents, violations, warnings, or citations in your possession pertaining or relating to the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Plant located at 6650 Ramsey Street, Fayetteville, North Carolina issued by you between September 1, 2016 and April 30, 2017.

If there are any fees associated with searching and/or copying these records, please inform us in advance if the cost will exceed $25 and we will be happy to put down a deposit and/or provide full payment in advance of the copying. If you deny any or all of this request, please cite the specific exemption you believe justifies your refusal to release the information, identify the documents being excluded, and notify our office of any appeal procedures available under law to obtain the documents you withhold.

We request you notify our office of your determination regarding this request within 20 business days of your receipt of this written request. If we do not receive written notification of your determination within the above-stated 20-day period, we will consider our request approved.
